

WINDSOR SONOMA

2009 SAUVIGNON BLANC
RUSSIAN RIVER VALLEY

THE APPELLATION

The Russian River Valley is one of the coolest appellations in Sonoma County, providing ideal conditions for growing outstanding cool-climate Sauvignon Blanc grapes. With the nearby Pacific Ocean, morning fog and afternoon breezes strongly influence the region's growing season. Grapes have the luxury of ripening slowly to develop full, luscious fruit flavors while retaining crisp acidity — the signature characteristics of our expressive 2009 Sauvignon Blanc.

Refreshingly bright and crisp with fresh grapefruit and floral aromas. Nectarine, grapefruit, a hint of crisp green apple and cantaloupe flavors are balanced by sublime acidity. This 2009 vintage is vibrant and delicious.
